

- Enhancing, supporting actively, and improving continuously a quality management system aimed at satisfying the stakeholders' needs as well as the applicable requirements;
- Adapting performances to customers' requirements;
- Fostering the development of competences and methods;
- Making employees aware of their contribution to the excellence;
- Ensuring a strong and reliable supply chain;
- Satisfying business innovation needs through robust and flexible processes;
- Ensuring process compliance with human values, ethical and integrity principles, and regulatory, law, quality, and sustainability prescriptions.