
Italdesign is Top Employer Italy 2023

Moncalieri, Jan. 17, 2023

Italdesign opens its 55th anniversary year certified Top Employer Italy 2023, a certification endorsing excellence in Human Resources policies and practices.

"We are so proud to start our celebrative year with such an important acknowledgement – states Giuseppe Savino, Chief Human Resources Officer - It's our eighth Top Employer Italy in a row. Our commitment as HR, together with all the company's functions, is a path of endless evolution towards the offer of ever better working conditions and quality and towards the constant acquisition of new top talents to value, motivate, grow and integrate into passionate teams of professionals. We ended 2022 with 131 new colleagues, breaking a record in our 55 years of work. This means 131 talents did choose us to build their professional future in these challenging years and to walk with us their growth path. Smart-working, benefits, corporate culture, diversity, equity and inclusion, sustainability and compliance are the key topics we focus on. They are in line with our employees' core values, and they allowed us to get the Top Employer best ratings in new talents' training in every business function, in Employer Branding and Talent Acquisition strategies, in corporate value-centric approach and Integrity Culture – And concludes - Our people are and will always be at the center”.

The Top Employers procedures focus on participation in a stringent and in-depth survey process – the HR Best Practices Survey – and achievement of the high standards required. To ensure that the survey process is valid, all responses are audited, which means that the working conditions operating within the company have been carefully checked and made Italdesign eligible to join a select group of companies certified as Top Employers.
