for the 10th consecutive year.
A commitment for excellence and innovation in the future of employment

Immediate embargo

Moncalieri, January 16, 2025

Italdesign is thrilled to announce that it has been recognized as a Top Employer Italy for the 10th year in a row. This certification celebrates the company's excellent human resource management and development policies, as well as its relentless pursuit of innovation and evolution in work dynamics.

Giuseppe Savino, Chief Human Resources Officer at Italdesign, remarked: "This achievement underscores our dedication to creating a work environment that nurtures both individual and collective growth. It also highlights our ability to continually reinvent ourselves. We are committed to building a future where everyone can fully realize their potential in a setting that champions diversity, innovation, and inclusion."

The company's pledge to ensure equal opportunities is a cornerstone of its strategic vision, aimed at driving profound cultural change. This vision led to a significant milestone in 2024: achieving Gender Equality certification.

Savino added: *"We aim to redefine the concept of success and leadership. Global challenges demand a fresh approach, where everyone, regardless of gender, has equal opportunities for growth. We're putting our words into action by fostering a work environment where inclusivity and innovation are part of our daily routine."

The Top Employer Italy certification also marks the dawn of a new vision for work. "The evolution of company dynamics is an ongoing journey," concluded Savino. "That's why we constantly enhance our policies and processes, creating an ecosystem where collaboration thrives, supported by emerging technologies and continuous learning, to tackle the challenges of a rapidly changing world."
